Mr. NYE moved to add two members to the Committee on Pacific Railroad as representatives of the South, but at the suggestion of Mr. EDMUNDS he withdrew the motion temporarily.

The PRESIDENT then directed the Secretary to read the calendar of bills and resolutions on the table, most of which were referred to appropriate Committees.

On motion of Mr. SUMNER, his bill to resume specie payments on the 4th of July next, was laid over until next week, when he will move to refer it to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. SUMNER also explained the purpose of the bill introduced by him to carry out the reconstruction acts in Georgia, viz: to resume to a certain extent the power of Congress over Georgia in consequence of the Legislature having been illegally constituted. On his motion the bill was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Mr. DRAKE explained the purpose of his resolution in relation to the grades of General and Lieutenant-General in the Army, and Admiral and Vice Admiral in the Navy, to be to keep those grades in reserve as rewards for extraordinary public services, and not leave them open to be reached by regular promotion and accommodation. Referred first to the Committee on Military Affairs, to go, if favorably reported on by them, to the Committee on Naval Affairs.

The House bill to regulate the duties on copper, &c., was referred to the Committee on Mines and Mining.

When the House bill to restore the Bureau of Indian Affairs to the War Department was reached, Mr. THAYER moved to refer to the Committee on Indian Affairs, and Mr. WILSON moved its reference to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. FERRY opposed sending it to the Committee on Indian Affairs, because he thought that would be fatal to the bill.

Mr. TIPTON favored the motion to send it to the Committee on Indian Affairs, because he thought if any change was to be made in the Indian policy of the Government, that Committee, which had so long had charge of the whole subject, was the one most fit to deal with it.

After an animated debate the bill was referred to the Committee on Indian Affairs.

A resolution was adopted to adjourn from day to day until Monday.

After the reference of the Indian Bureau Bill,

Mr. WILSON introduced a bill to repeal section sixth of the act making appropriations for the support of the army for the year ending June 30th, 1868. Referred to Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. RAMSEY introduced a bill granting lands to aid in the construction of a railroad from St. Paul, Minnesota, to the Missouri river. Referred to Committee on Public Lands.

Mr. WILSON introduced a joint resolution submitting for ratification the following amendment to the Constitution:

ARTICLE 15—No distinction shall be made by the United States, nor any State, among citizens in their civil or political rights on account of race, color or previous condition.

Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Also, a bill to regulate the elective franchise in the United States. Referred to the same Committee.

Mr. CONNESS introduced a bill fixing the compensation for labor performed for the Government of the United States, which was laid on the table and ordered to be printed. It provides that from and after June 25th, 1869, all laborers, workmen, and mechanics engaged in the employment of the United States, shall receive for a day's labor, as provided by law, the full wages and compensation paid for such labor as if ten hours constituted a day's labor.

On motion of Mr. SHERMAN, the credentials of Mr. Hill, Senator-elect from Georgia, with memorials, &c., relating to them, were referred to Judiciary Committee.

Mr. RICE called up the bill to provide for the issue of arms to the militia of certain States lately in rebellion, which, on motion of Mr. WILSON was referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

Mr. EDMUNDS called for unfinished business. Some of his friends, he said, and some who were not his friends, supposed he moved to adjourn Wednesday in order to prevent the reading of the President's Message. His motion had no such design. On the contrary, he was in favor of having it read for the benefit of his party, and that the people might see what kind of man they had at the head of the Government. He therefore moved that the Secretary be directed to proceed with the reading of the Message. The motion was carried.

Mr. CAMERON renewed the motion to dispense with the reading of the message, but at the suggestion of other Senators immediately withdrew it.

The SECRETARY then read the message from the point at which he had been interrupted yesterday. When he had finished, Mr. EDMUNDS moved to lay the message on the table and ordered it to be printed, which was done.

The PRESIDENT presented a communication from the Secretary of the Interior, transmitting accounts up to June last of the disbursements for incidental and miscellaneous purposes during 1868.

Mr. EDMUNDS said, in view of the extraordinary proposition in relation to the national debt contained in the President's message, he would move that on next Tuesday the Finance Committee, unless they should in the meantime report the resolution offered by him on the 21st of November last, be discharged from the further consideration of it, and would move its passage.

The resolution affirms that the faith of the United States is solemnly pledged to the payment of the debt.

Mr. EDMUNDS made a few remarks to the effect that the acceptance of the President's proposition would dishonor us forever in the eyes of all honest men.

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN spoke against the repudiation. He was glad the message had been read, that the Representatives of the American people may repudiate and reject the repudiating doctrine, and let the world know the people of this country, who had heroism to preserve its liberties, have now the will and ability to preserve its honor.

The Senate adjourned until Monday.

Mr. GARFIELD remarked, as it was a very important bill, he would not ask to have it printed and made the special order.

Mr. WASHBURNE, of Illinois, and others opposed it.

On motion of Mr. ROSS it was tabled—73 to 40.

Mr. GARFIELD congratulated the organ of the incoming administration on the support received from the other side.

Mr. DODGE, from same Committee, reported a bill appropriating $229,848 to refund to Iowa expenses incurred in connection with raising troops. Pending the reading of the report, the morning hour expired.

Mr. PHELPS asked leave to offer a resolution in reference to the ejection of American citizens from the Guano Island, Alta Vela.

Objected to.

Mr. WASHBURNE, of Illinois, offered a resolution for a recess from Monday, December 21st, to Tuesday, January 5th.

Mr. SCHENCK remarked that he felt it was useless to attempt taking a recess, but as he was instructed by the Committee on Ways and Means this forenoon, he would move an amendment, making the recess from the 23d of December to the 4th of January.

Mr. WASHBURNE moved the previous question.

The amendment was rejected—77 to 91.

The Press on the President's Message.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The Tribune says of the President's Message: "This Message is his worst, and fortunately his last insult to the American people. As he goes out of the White House, he stops to shake his fist at the Capitol. There sit the men who baffled him; the Representatives who impeached him; the Senators who convicted him; the maker of the laws that fetter him; the servants of the people who prevented him from restoring rebels to power, and making the war a useless sacrifice. Utterly powerless as he is to arrest the bright chariot of destiny, he cannot forbear to throw mud at it as he passes."

The World says of the treatment of the Message by Congress yesterday that "Gen. Grant's sycophants, both in the Senate and House, succeeded in putting an insult upon the President. This extraordinary proceeding is something more than wanton insult to the head of the Government. It is a flagrant contempt of the Constitution. The doctrines of the President, though susceptible of confutation, are such as an honest man may entertain."

Navigation Closed on the Hudson—The Erie Suits—Gen. Grant—Wife Murder to be Extradited—Dartmouth College Festival—A Colored Man Determines to Test His Right to Register as a Voter.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, December 10, 1868.

The navigation of Hudson river has virtually closed. The last boat of the season arrived from Troy this morning. The river thence to Kingston is filled with ice, and by to-morrow morning the upper river will be entirely frozen over. All the Albany and Troy boats are laid up for the winter.

The Erie suits were before Judge Cardozo to-day on a motion for adjournment. After argument by counsel the Judge decided to permit the papers on each side to be read and the day was occupied in this manner.

United States Commissioner Osborne has dicided that Henrich Shaffer, the alleged fugitive wife murderer, from Hesse Damstadt, should be extradited.

A large number of distinguished alumni of Dartmouth College attended Dartmouth College festival and dinner at Delmonico's this evening.

James H. Darrall, a colored man, has commenced a suit in the Supreme Court against the Board of Registry for excluding his name from the voting list for want of the State property qualification in the ownership of two hundred and fifty dollars worth of personal property. He claims the right to register under the Constitution of the United States.

The celebrated Sanitary Fair ox, weighing upwards of four thousand pounds, raised by Carlos Pierce and now on exhibition in Boston, was tendered to Gen. Grant last evening by Maj. W. W. Leland, and is to be served at the inauguration dinner in March, in Washington, under the supervision of the Republican Central Committee.

ARKANSAS.

Desperate State of Affairs—Fears of Bloodshed—Great Excitement.

MEMPHIS, Dec. 10.—The Avalanche's Augusta, Ark., special this afternoon, says the militia under Gen. Upham continue to seize property and arrest citizens. A large number of the citizens of the surrounding country have banded together for the purpose of attacking the militia, and are reported to be marching on Augusta. Upham declares if he is attacked he will shoot all the prisoners now in his hands and burn the town. A committee of citizens and police has gone to meet them and beseech them for the sake of the women and children not to attack the militia. The greatest excitement and consternation prevails. Business is entirely suspended.

Particulars of the Killing of the Indian Chief Yellow Smoke.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CAICAGO, December 10.—The following are the facts relative to the killing of the Indian chief at Dunlap, Iowa:

Several hundred Indians had been encamped near the town. The Indian who was killed came to town, and several of the railroad men got in with him, and one of the first acts was to get his blanket away from him. This he finally recovered. They then took his tomahawk, and when he tried to get this back, they struck him with it. This induced the chief to make an effort to get back his hatchet by force, when he was struck a cowardly blow and killed. This outrageous conduct aroused the indignation of his comrades, and they came in force to the town, saying in plain English that if the villains who had perpetrated the crime were not at once apprehended they would burn the place. They had force enough on hand to do it, but the authorities there at once took steps to secure the dastardly scoundrels. One of them got away, and the other is in limbo, and will be tried for his cruel murder of the innocent man.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON, December 10.—The members of the new Ministry had an audience with the Queen yesterday and formally accepted appointments.

The following appointments in the Government are officially announced: Wm. E. Forster, Vice President of Board of Education; Jas. Stanfield, Jr., Acton Ayreton and Geo. Grenfell Glyn, Junior, Lords of Treasury; Right Hon. Wm Monsell, Under Secretary for Colonial Department, Edward K. Pugessen, Under Secretary for Home Department; John Arthur Otway, Under Secretary for Foreign Department.

The Times this morning has a long editorial on the message of President Johnson. Alluding to the Alabama negotiations, it says: "The English Government has shown every desire to make an arrangement and it is difficult to believe that the President's Cabinet or a hostile majority in Congress will throw over a settlement arrived at after long negotiation.

LONDON, December 10.—Evening.—The new Parliament was opened this afternoon by the Royal Commission. The usual speech from the Throne was omitted. The House of Commons reelected Right Hon. John Evelyn Dennison speaker.

SPAIN.

MADRID, December 10.—News from Cadiz up to a late hour last night has reached here. The insurgents in that city still occupied the Hotel De Ville and the surrounding houses, and have erected barricades. The Government troops occupied the Custom House and buildings in the neighborhood up to the city gate. All the foreign Consuls have taken refuge in the Custom House. The civil Governor of Cadiz fled to San Fernando. The insurgents have forced into their ranks all able bodied men. The prison convicts and the former Royal Guards have joined the insurgents.

Telegrams from San Fernando say the movement is reactionary, carried on in the name and with the elements of Republicanism. The insurgents seem to be well supplied with money. The Civil Governor of Saragossa telegraphs that the Republicans there intended to attempt to release and arm the convicts, but precautions were taken which prevented the plot from being carried out.

MADRID, December 10—Evening.—The insurgents in Cadiz have demanded terms of capitulation, which it is understood the government is disposed to grant.

An armistice of two days has been agreed to with the insurgents in Cadiz for the burial of the dead and to allow the women and children to leave the city. At its conclusion a combined attack will be made by the troops and fleet on that quarter occupied by the rebels. The latter have set free and armed seven hundred convicts from the prisons and galleys. It is estimated the rebels in Cadiz number three thousand men.

ITALY.

VALLETA, December 9.—Dispatches from Silicia report a fresh eruption of Mt. Etna. On Tuesday night the volcano broke out with increased violence, ejecting flame and lava until five o'clock this morning. The torrents of lava devastated the surrounding country. The ashes from the crater fell on the town of Aci Beale, and were blown even into the streets of Messina. At last accounts the mountain was enveloped in smoke and labored with deafening detonations. Great crowds have gathered on the northern shore of Malta to witness the magnificent spectacle which, though one hundred and twenty miles distant, is distinctly visible.

FLORENCE, December 10.—The eruption at Mount Etna still continues, and is increasing in violence. Sand from the crater fell in clouds on the streets five miles distant.

FRANCE.

PARIS, December 10.—It is reported that the Emperor has returned from Campeigne to Paris and that he will accord an audience to Senor Olezaga, and will recognize him as the accredited Ambassador of Spain.

The Patrie thinks the message of President Johnson, in view of the approaching close of his administration, is unimportant and only the point calling for attention is the recommendation respecting direct elections.

HUNGARY.

PESTH, December 10.—The session of the Hungarian Diet was closed with a speech from the throne. The Emperor Francis Joseph, speaking as King of Hungary, eulogized the labors of Parliament as tending to establish harmony in all parts of the monarchy. Skating Rink—Vagrants Released—Provost Marshal Case—The Weather.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

ST. LOUIS, December 10.—The Skating Rink opened to-night for the first time this season. A large and fashionable crowd was in attendance.

The Criminal Court rendered a decision to-day which will open the doors of the City Work House and release all the vagrants confined there.

Two or three cases in the United States District Court were decided to-day against George Dousmar, Jr., tobacconist, for assessments aggregating about eighteen thousand dollars.

In 1864 Charles D. Coleman, Provost Marshal, having charge of the draft in this district, was arrested for embezzling the money of substitutes, tried by Military Commission, convicted and sent to the penitentiary. After serving some time he was taken before Judge Treat, of the U. S. District Court, on a writ of habeas corpus, and discharged, on the ground of informality in the proceedings against him. Subsequently he brought suit against Gen. Benneville, Col. Baker, Maj. Eaton, the Secretary of War and others for false imprisonment, claiming $250,000 damages. To-day he had the case dismissed at his own cost.

Weather very cold to-night, the mercury since dark sinking to zero. The river is full of heavy ice, and navigation now may be considered closed.

HANNAH BINDING SHOES.

Poor lone Hanna,
Sitting at the window, binding shoes,
Faded, wrinkled,
Sitting, stitching, in a mournful muse.
Bright-eyed beauty once was she,
When the bloom was on the tree;
Spring and Winter,
Hannah's at the window, binding shoes.

Not a neighbor,
Passing nod or answer will refuse,
To her whisper,
"Is there from the fishers any news?"
O, her heart's adrift with one
On an endless voyage gone!
Night and morning
Hannah's at the window, binding shoes.

Fair young Hannah,
Ben, the sunburnt fisher, gayly woos,
Hale and clever,
For a willing heart and hand he sues.
May-day skies are all aglow,
And the waves are laughing so!
For her wedding
Hannah leaves her window and her shoes.

May is passing;
Mid the apple bough a pigeon coos.
Hannah shudders,
For the mild Southwester mischief brews.
Round the rocks of Marblehead,
Outward bound, a schooner sped;
Silent, lonesome,
Hannah's at the window, binding shoes.

'Tis November.
Now no tear her wasted cheek bedews.
From Newfoundland
Not a sail returning will she lose.
Whispering hoarsely, "Fishermen,
Have you, have you heard of Ben?"
Old with watching,
Hannah's at the window, binding shoes.

Twenty Winters
Bleach and tear the ragged shore she views.
Twenty seasons:—
Never one has brought her any news.
Still her dim eyes silently
Chase the white sails o'er the sea;
Hopeless, faithful,
Hannah's at the window, binding shoes.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, December 10, 1868.

There is little that is really new or important to be said in regard to the market in a general way. For some articles, particularly Grain, there is an improved demand and that, too, at stiffening prices, and the receipts of produce generally are falling off, and with reduced stocks, higher prices generally ensue. There is but very little spirit of a speculative character manifested, which is owing to a want of confidence in the future as well as to the stringency in money matters.

APPLE BUTTER—Demand is better and market firmer but prices are unchanged, 70 to 75, in kegs, and 80 to 85, in crocks.

APPLES—There is a contined good demand, and the market is firmer but unchanged; regular sales at $3,00 to $4,50 per barrel.

BUTTER—Good to prime Roll is selling at 35 to 40 and choice at 42 to 43.

BEANS—$3,50 to $3,75 per bushel.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—4½ to 5c.

CHEESE—Dull and unchanged, ranging all the way from 15 to 20, according to quality.

CIDER—Dull; $6 to $9 per bbl.

CRANBERRIES—Sales of prime to choice Eastern Cultivated at $23 to $25 per barrel.

DRIED FRUIT—Steady with sales of Peaches at 12 for quarters and 14 to 15 for halves. Apples 9 to 11 cts as to quality.

EGGS—In good supply and unchanged at 32 to 33.

POULTRY—Sales of dressed Turkeys at 15 to 16, and Chickens at 12 to 13.

POTATOES—In rather better demand, we can report sales of Peach Blows in Store at 85 to 90.

HAY—The demand is rather better, and with diminished arrivals, prices are tending upward. We can report sales all the way from $20 to $27—the outside figure for prime loose pressed.

HOMINY—Sales at $6,50 to the trade, and $7 in a retail way.

STOCKS.

Stock market dull, unsettled and lower. The non-declaration of dividend by the Central R. R. directors keeps the outside public away from Wall street. Erie directors had a meeting to-day and it was rumored on the street that 200,000 shares had been cancelled. The Erie R. R. Co. has leased the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad for a term of twelve years, upon the condition of the Erie company paying 30 per cent. of the gross earnings of leased road, or a minimum of eight hundred thousand dollars yearly, in the event of the 30 per cent. of earnings falling below that amount. The Erie Company engages to keep the track, stations and rolling stock of that road in repair, and gives to that company the option of renewing the lease at the expiration of the arrangement, and will give the Atlantic and Great Western Company an amount more than sufficient to cover the interest on its bonds due under the recent arrangemeut with the bondholders. The suit against the Pacific Mail Company for carrying excess of passengers is one of those periodical proceedings against Steamship Companies generally compromised for small sums.

—The Cincinnati & Louisville Mail Company propose to build two splendid steamers, three hundred feet long, double deckers, one at Louisville and the other at Cincinnati.

—Mr. Philip Dodridge, pilot of the Annie Laurie, was married to Miss Emma Middleton, of Baltimore, in the Episcopal Church at Charleston, West Virginia, last Saturday.

—The wreck of the steamer J. N. McCullough has been floated down toward the shipyard at Madison, a considerable distance from where she sank. The possibility of raising her is now rendered certain.

—Captain Carter telegraphed from Florence on Tuesday that the bodies of twenty-eight victims of the steamboat disaster had been recovered, and that the weather had turned so cold that the searching for bodies in the river had to be suspended.

—The Cincinnati Gazette, of Wednesday says: Walter Brown the "champion" rower, arrived on the Bostona yesterday. He was to row from Pittsburgh to Cincinnati, but didn't do it, in consequence of having broken his boat against a bridge pier at Parkersburg. He came from than city by steamer, nearly four hundred miles, but still claims that he has won his wager.

—Capt. Benj. M. Dove, U. S. N., who was long connected with the Mississippi Squadron, died at Key West Florida, the 19th of last month. Capt. Dove was one of the most gallent and efficient officers on the Western rivers during the late war, but his modesty and unassuming manners stood in the way of his receiving proper appreciation. His age was fifty-five years.

—The steamboat fraternity of this city will doubtless regret to learn that Lew H. Vance of Madison, was amongst the victims of the late catastrophe on the Ohio. Mr. Vance had a wide spread acquaintance on the Western waters, and was universally esteemed for the many virtuos of his heart and mind, combining as they did all the attributes of a high-toned, honorable gentleman.

—The Dubuque Herald, of Saturday, says: The snow storm has closed up the river news, and it is doubtful if boats will venture another trip this season. Be it recorded that a packet left this city on the 3d day of December, 1868, for St. Paul, also for Fulton. Last year packets ceased coming on the 5th of December. The river was full of slush ice and snow yesterday, and no boat was visible but the ferry.

—A St. Lous telegram says: Navigation suspended above Keokuk, there being nothing afloat except ferries. Heavy rain along the Lower Missouri has caused a swell of two feet, but it will soon run out. Ice is running at and below St. Joseph. The directors of the Atlantic & Mississippi Steamship Company met yesterday and re-elected the officers of last year, viz.: President, W. J. Lewis; Vice President, Geo. Pegram; Secretary, John R. Fitzgerald.

—Bar-keeping on the Mississippi is not the lucrative business it was before the war. It is the almost unanimous expression of those interested that it is played out. A packet recently went down to New Orleans with 150 cabin passengers. The bar-keeper says it proved one of the poorest trips for him he ever had. Nearly all the time, night and day, seven tables were occupied by euchre players, yet the bar-keeper didn't sell one deck of cards. Another bar-keeper in one of the best trades on the lower river says he has not a sold a deck of cards during the season, although sometimes there a hundred passengers in the cabin. This is no imaginary sketch. We know personally several bar-keepers who cleared before the war from four to six hundred dollars per month, who have become considerabiv involved during the past twelve months. Some of them did not clear enough to pay the rents which they had agreed to pay for their bars.—St. Louis Democrat.

THE Sultan of Turkey, sustained by England and France, has sent an ultimatum to the King of Greece.

THE body of Mr. G. W. FAHNESTOCK, lost in the steamboat disaster, has been recovered. The remains of his daughter have also been found.

THE revolutionists in Spain are not having matters all their own way. An insurrection against them has been started at Cadiz, nominally in the name of Republicanism, but supposed to be inspired and controlled by the Reactionists.

IT IS reported from Washington that in making up the Committees all the Conservative Senators have been shelved, except Mr. HENDERSON, of Missouri, and he narrowly escaped.

The Missouri Legislature will soon displace Mr. HENDERSON, electing in his place Mr. CARL SCHURZ.

ALMOST alone of our exchanges, the Harrisburg Telegraph is on the right track, in its denunciation of the Cuban insurrection, as a movement to resist the emancipation of slavery and the progress of purer ideas. We have regretted to perceive the lack of discrimination, upon a state of facts really patent to the world, which marks the press generally, of this country, in its treatment of the Cuban question. Fortunately, they will all come right by waiting a little longer.

THE New York Post says, that so far as the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company, and the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati and St. Louis Railroad Company are connected by business, their affairs are to be managed by a joint commission, and expresses the opinion that an example has thus been set which is likely to be followed by other great companies, and, under wise management, with good results to the public as well as the shareholders.

GARIBALDI recommends to "his friends in Spain" to proclaim the Federal Republic and name a Dictator for two years, He warns them against the error committed in France by Lafayette, commends their wise moderation, and thus concludes his admonitions:

The national sovereignty once acquired, pass on to the constituent Cortes, with universal suffrage, and they will occupy themselves in finding the man capable of governing the Republic with dignity, who will return to his hearth after two years accompanied by the benedictions of his grateful fellow-citizens.

INVITING the closest scrutiny by Congress into his administration of the Freedmen's Bureau, Gen. O. O. HOWARD is just to himself and to the millions who have been officially his clients. It is alike due to them, to himself and to the country, that there should be a formal and complete correction of the misrepresentations with which the Bureau has been unsparingly assailed, and that the wisdom which originated the policy and the faithful ability which has administered it should be vindicated together. No well-informed and candid man can doubt that this vindication would be complete.

THE SITUATION in Georgia is fully before Congress, and awaits its careful deliberation. We noted, yesterday, the protest in which a large number of the officers and members of the State Legislature declare that the reconstruction acts have not been faithfully complied with. This protest is further enforced by Gov. BULLOCK, who officially states that many provisions in those laws have been disregarded, and asks that the facts be investigated, "to the end that loyalty may be protected by the prompt enforcement of Congressional enactments." He adverts to the facts, that the law prescribes that the State government shall be "provisional" until the representation in Congress shall be complete; that all provisional officers, legislative and otherwise, shall take a prescribed oath; that this latter requirement has been altogether disregarded, and that the inevitable result of this is seen in the subsequent usurpations and flagrant disloyalty of the Legislature. The case is a plain and strong one, which Congress will neither ignore, nor suffer to pass without remedies of a radically effective type.

OUR STREET RAILWAYS.

A well-devised system of street-railways has come to be as much an essential feature in the municipal policy of large cities like ours, as the pavements and sidewalks which facilitate the ordinary travel. The more complete that system may be—the more wisely comprehensive in its plans, harmonious in its several details, and the more faithfully its facilities may be developed and its obligations to the public executed—the better it demonstrates the just public conception of a sound municipal policy, as well to meet large future anticipations as to satisfy the current demands of a rapidly expanding area and increasing population. Street-railways have become, we repeat, as much a municipal necessity, in cities like ours, as are pavements, public lights, the markets, the police, or, we might almost say, the streets themselves. By their aid, the extension of the municipal area, the overflow of a too dense population upon the adjacent suburbs, becomes an element of increased municipal strength and wealth, instead of an injurious depletion of the city's material resources. Capital and labor are alike supplied thereby with the conditions, otherwise unattainable, which unite their effective concentration upon the industries constituting the solid base of municipal prosperity, and with those other conditions which are no less essential to the retention of capital and labor in our midst. The trade and manufactures of the compact town employ that capital and labor to the best advantage, while a cheap, speedy and popular system of communication with the outlying suburbs, meeting the want of all classes, especially protects labor in its right to live, by placing a comfortable home within its reach.

We need not dilate upon the vast importance of this system of local inter-communication in a large city. Its benefits are patent to all and thoroughly understood. We propose to allude to another view of the subject which has been much neglected in the popular consideration. This street-railway system has been much discussed, but mainly in relation to its bearings upon local questions, and isolated interests. As a system, taken as one whole, comprehending, in all its ramifications, an enlarged and general view of the public interests, and conforming in its particulars to a wise appreciation both of the public needs and the public obligations, the so-called "systems" of street-railways have been little better than no systems at all in most of our large cities. Road after road has been authorized and constructed, from one year to another, as local interests have seemed to demand, but each project has managed to retain its own peculiarities of franchise, and to perpetuate the special policy of its owners, too often regardless of the public convenience and interests. Hence, naturally, the public have attributed to these companies a policy which pursues their own special corporate advantage, at the expense of municipal rights and of the common interest.

It seems plain to us that the solid interests of these corporations and of the public are identified in a great many particulars. For example, it is for their interest alike, that the railways should be made profitable to their owners, for therein the public have the best guarantee for their own service conveniently and efficiently. The public should concede every franchise which is requisite to the investment of capital for the public accommodation; the companies should meet with no restrictions calculated to impair their prospect for an adequate return upon the capital invested; they should be exposed to no competition which would result in the public being badly served by two ill-paid corporations, instead of being amply accommodated by one which finds its account in doing all it has agreed to do. Contracts made by the authorities with these corporations should be faithfully executed, on both sides, in their spirit as well as letter. The public have as much to gain, by a street-railway judiciously and faithfully administered, as has the corporation itself. The interests of both run exactly together in that regard. Each party to these contracts very speedily discovers that it cannot dispense with the other. The accommodation becomes as essential to the community as are the franchises which the latter has granted to to the corporations receiving them. Each should deal fairly with the other, and is sure to find its account in a mutually just and liberal policy. There is no need for that chronic state of public and private dissatisfaction and animosity, which too often marks the experience of community with these roads. The companies can, in the long run, gain nothing by a policy which persistently ignores as well the soundest principles of all business as the spirit of contract-obligations, in the dealings with the public, its customers, and community, on the other hand, assails its own interest daily and hourly in any unjust raid upon those whose profits are only earned by serving them to their satisfaction.

These railways are often quite profitable, to their owners. Quite as often, the extent of their profits is largely over-estimated by the public. And the cases are not rare where there have been no profits at all. The best paying-roads are with hardly an exception those which are efficiently managed, and which afford to the public the largest degree of accommodation. Usually, we find these roads to be also the most approved in the popular estimation. The roads which the public detest, and hourly complains of, which furnish indifferent cars, uncivil attendants, irregular and insufficient service, and which enjoy the unmixed ill-will of their customers, are almost invariably found to pay their stockholders poorly, and to have some radical fault of mis-management at the bottom.

The true policy for a community is 1st. To give these corporations a fair chance, a show to get suitable returns on their money invested, protection against unfair competition, and to guarantee to them the public faith in the inviolability of its contracts; 2d. To require, in return therefor, an absolute fidelity to these contracts by the corporations receiving them, enforcing that fidelity by a prompt visitation of all needful penalties; 3d. To remember that in these, as in all other contracts, it is the mutual advantage which both parties must regard, that the benefits are not to enure to either exclusively; that the public is best served by those who are best paid to serve it; and that the municipality, an aggregation of individuals, gets value received by each and all of its citizens, and by the municipality as a whole, for its really valuable concessions of privilege.

If a given road is badly managed, look into the cause of the deficiency. If the public have made a hard bargain for the Company, make it easier by timely concessions, so as to leave no good reason for a continued delinquency. If the road fails in the execution of a reasonable contract, let it be enforced against them at once. If the road be delinquent merely because its managers disregard the sound rules of business, depend upon it that these rules will take care of themselves in time, and the incompetent men must give place to their betters. For any evil of this sort, there is certainly a remedy somewhere, whether in the wiser re-adjustment of the stipulations, in proper penalties against their violation, or in the sure operation of the business-principles by which all undertakings, public or private, must stand or fall.

We can no more do without the street railways than they can without us. We need each other. We must give them a fair chance to live, and they must pay us, for the franchises we give them, in the accommodations which promote our mutual advantage.

We are happy to know that our cities are in the main so well served by the existing corporations. Those crossing the St. Clair bridge are models for any city. The Birmingham and Lawrenceville lines seem to be administered with a due regard for the convenience and interest of all parties concerned. The Pleasant Valley line promises to meet the public expectations, and we trust it may share with the others named, in an honorably earned remuneration. The Minersville and Oakland lines are the unfortunate exceptions. As they are, whosever fault it may be, they neither deserve nor enjoy the public approbation. We cannot speak well either of their cars, or other equipment, their time-schedules, or of the personnel employed. The public dissatisfaction with these lines is profound and apparently well-merited. They have valuable franchises and do not give value for them, in the public estimation. There is apparent no good reason why, if judiciously and vigorously managed, well equipped and disciplined, and once freed from existing elements destructive to the personal interests of the employees themselves, these lines, connecting the city with some of its most populous and wealthy suburbs, should not be made satisfactory to the public and profitable for their owners. If our authorities can legally apply any effective remedy for the current complaints, it should be done promptly. If otherwise, we are left then to rely upon the general laws of business, which will ultimately replace an incompetent control with better men.

Our street railway Companies are bound to certain engagements touching the cleaning and repair of the streets traversed by them. These obligations are just, and are for the most part faithfully complied with. They are subjected to other provisions more or less onerous, one of which, that of taxation is peculiarly burdensome. The lines to Allegheny and its suburbs, and perhaps others, are actually paying in taxation, for all purposes, the enormous rate of 24½ per cent upon their gross receipts. This is simply an outrage, not only on the corporation, but upon its customers. We write in the popular interest, and demand the cheapest fares. Yet, how can we ask any abatement of that sort when, for every sixpence received, the company gets only four and a half cents, the rest going into the public coffers? That is too high a tax to be paid by the public, including in large part as it does the classes which a wise taxation always aims to spare. As far as it goes, it is quite as objectionable as would be a tax upon any other article of prime necessity to the poor. As well tax the bread earned, as the road to the workshop. Either tax would be equally indefensible. We hope to see that rate reduced into equitable limits, so that these companies can establish five cent fares, with equal profit to themselves and vastly increased benefit to the public. This tax presents a marked illustration of the mistaken policy which forgets that the highest public interests in this regard are best promoted by a just and liberal policy towards these roads, as being to-day, in fact, the most effective and serviceable of agents in promoting our municipal prosperity.

The suggestions herein submitted seem to us worthy of general consideration. Let our readers reflect upon them, as we have, without being frightened by the bug-a-boo which might charge them with undue partiality to these corporations, and without sharing in the vulgar and unfounded prejudice which denounces the corporate interests as altogether antagonistic to those of the public.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

IT IS stated that $2,000,000 have been spent by the Receiver of the Atlantic and Great Western Railway, during the past sixteen months, in placing its track, roadbed and rolling stock in the most perfect condition.

A COMPANY has been organized to construct the "Pittsburgh, Mount Vernon & Indianapolis Railway" from Coshocton, O., through Knox and Delaware counties, to connect the Bellefontaine Road with the Pan-Handle Road. This line shortens the distance between Pittsburgh and Indianapolis thirty-two miles via Crestline and twenty-two miles via Columbus, and a decided confidence is felt in its early construction.

The Pan-Handle Company have also proposed to the people of Zanesville to construct the link of sixteen miles, to connect that town with the above road at Dresden, within twelve months, provided the citizens shall subscribe $100,000 to their stock, or purchase $300,000 of mortgage-bonds upon that extension. The Zanesville people accept the first proposal, have already secured the greater part of the subscriptions, and will easily make it all good. This ensures the immediate construction of a valuable link for the Pan-Handle Company, giving them a close connection at Zanesville with an independent air-line route to Cincinnati already in operation. We refer to the Wilmington road, which embodies, in its alignment and the country it traverses, a very large measure of usefulness to any powerful interest which may have the capital and nerve to develop it. Needing only the construction of another link of thirty-five miles between Morrow and Cincinnati, the Pan-Handle thus secures an air-line connection from Dresden to the Queen City, which can easily be run in six hours, and will bring Pittsburgh and Cincinnati within an eleven hours schedule for travel.

UNIVERSAL SUFFRAGE.

Mr. POMEROY has introduced in the Senate a proposition to amend the Constitution as follows:

ARTICLE 15. The basis of suffrage in the United States shall be that of citizenship; and all native or naturalized citizens shall enjoy the same rights and privileges of the elective franchise; but each State shall determine by law the age of a citizen and the time of residence required for the exercise of the right of suffrage, which shall apply equally to all citizens; and also shall make all laws concerning the times, places, and manner, of holding elections.

In the House, Judge KELLEY (Pa.) introduced the following:

ARTICLE 15.—No State shall deny to or exclude from the exercise of any of the rights and privileges of an elector, any citizen of the United States by reason of race or color.

Both of these propositions were properly referred to committees. In due time, the subject will be discussed boldly and exhaustively. There is less doubt as to the sentiment of members, than as to the feasibility of securing the adoption of any amendment embracing the broad principle, by the requisite number of Legislatures.

Mr. SUMNER has introduced in the Senate a Political Rights bill, also defining the qualifications of electors under Federal laws, and in some form, that measure has already secured much favor among members.

BEAVER FALLS, PA.

(Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

The rapid growth of this place is attracting general attention, especially among capitalists and manufacturers, who view it as a place of great importance for manufacturing purposes. The coal, limestone, fire and common clay, as well for brick as for pottery ware, the short distance to iron ore by railroad, its distance from Pittsburgh, only thirty miles, and its inexhaustible water power from the Beaver river give it advantages possessed by but few localities.

The present improvements give good promise for the future. The extensive cutlery works erected by General Howe, Dr. Hussey and the Economy Society, at a cost of several hundred thousand dollars, and calculated to give employment to some five hundred hands, the large foundry now in course of erection and nearly finished, (the largest perhaps from Pittsburgh to Chicago,) the extensive pottery for the manufacture of wares out of the clay immediately adjoining the town, the grist and saw mills and planing machines already erected and in active operation, and the glass works, &c. about being erected, show a living faith on the part of capitalists that Beaver Falls will soon rank among the largest manufacturing towns of the State. The inhabitants are supplied with pure spring water from the hillside springs by means of iron pipes, affording a cool, healthy water the year round. The pipes are already laid in nearly all the principal streets, and soon will receive proper municipal regulations from the borough authorities.

The Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company will soon have finished their new erections near their large station house, which will greatly add to the business of the place. The spacious house intended for a hotel, erected by Thomas H. Bracken, Esq., near the station, contains forty-five rooms, is nearly finished ready for accommodation of the publi

We know of no better location for a l ing Mill, as all material as well as la would be less expensive than in ma other localities. The rapid growth of th town has been owing greatly to its materia advantages, and railroads, but very much to the liberal and enterprising spirit of Messrs. Jacob Henrici and Jonathan Lentz, (and the late lamented Mr. Baker.) Trustees of the Economy Society. Two years ago it was a village of a population of about one hundred, now its population numbers about two thousand, and is daily increasing. Its population is made up mainly of active, industrious, enterprising mechanics, artizans, merchants and manufacturers, and if they continue to follow the commendable example of the founders of the place, they will not be outdone for industry, enterprise, economy and thrift by any town in our State.

Two churches are nearly completed, and it is expected that in early spring three others will be commenced, and a large school house is soon to be erected,

Recently it has been erected into a borough, and soon the streets and side-walks will be substantially and well improved. Altogether, the town possesses rare advantages and such as doubtless will continue to attract general public attention. Capital for manufacturing purposes is encouraged by all reasonable inducements as to price of preferred sites near the coal or river, on easy terms. VISITOR.

WASHINGTON, PA.

WASHINGTON, PA., December 9, 1868.

Last week was with us an active and rather interesting one. On Tuesday evening the first lecture of our varieties course was delivered by Rev. C. A. Dickey, of Allegheny city. Subject—"Over Sea." It was an admirable performance, reflecting great credit upon the lecturer and affording much pleasnre to a delighted audience.

Mr. Dickey evidently traveled with his eyes open, and now tells what he sawin a very fascinating manner.

On Thursday and Friday evenings a festival was held by the ladies of the First Presbyterian Church. They know, to a nicety, how to get up and conduct a festival. It rendered entire satisfaction to all who attended. Nothing improper—nothing to which the most fastidious in such matters could possibly object was allowed. It was not only a social but a truly religious festival. Proceeds over four hundred dollars and to be devoted to the furnishing of the new Church now in process of completion. This Church is a credit to our town. It is large, having a fine tower and steeple, and new bell, whose silvery tones may be heard for many miles. The church will be dedicated in the course of a few weeks.

On Saturday evening Major Gen. Kilpatrick favored us with a visit and a lecture. He gave us "Sherman's March to the Sea" in fine style, and with thrilling effect. He electrified the audience. He is certainly worth hearing. He deals terrible blows to rebel sympathizers. Let him strike. AMICUS.

Court met at the usual hour, yesterday morning, Judge Kirkpatrick on the bench.

In the case of John Hanz and Adam Herchenrother vs. Coleman, Foster & Co., previously reported, the jury found for plaintiff in the sum of $204.35, subject to the opinion of the Court on a qustion of law reserved.

On motion of Joseph M. Gazzam, Esq., E. T. Moorhead, of Indiana county, was duly qualified and admitted to practice in this Conrt.

The case of J. W. Cochran & Co. vs. the owners of the steamboat "Neville" was next taken up. This is an action for damages sustained in a collision on the Ohio river. It is alleged by the plaintiffs that on the 22d of May, 1867, Cochran & Co. had a fleet of coal or coal boats decending the river, when the steamboat "Seville," which was ascending, collided with them near the foot of Neville Island, sinking one of the boats in the fleet. The boat and cargo were alleged to have been worth seven or eight hundred dollars. The case was on trial when Court adjourned.

There is no change in the trial list for to-day.

Quarter Sessions—Judge Mellon.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Richard Barker, charged with abandonment on oath of Lilly Barker, was the first taken up. The prosecutrix is about eighteen years of age, and the defendant about twenty and is working at the printing business, making about five dollars per week. They have been married about a year and separated a few weeks afterward. The Court held the case over.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

The next case taken up was that of the Commonwealth vs. Charles Eback, David Baldwin prosecutor. The defendant was watchman at Schultz's foundry, in Birmingham, and it appears got some hinges and the defendant accused him with attempting to steal them, when a fight ensued. The jury returned a verdict of guilty.

The next case taken up was the Commonwealth vs. William McCallen, indicted for assault and battery, Mary Desman prosecutrix. The defendant accused the prosecutrix's son, aged seven years, with stealing coal, and caught him and tied him up in his stable, for which he was charged with assault and battery. The jury found the defendant guilty of assault. The defendant was sentenced to pay the costs of prosecution and a fine of six cents, and the Court stated to the prosecutrix that he would direct the defendant to make information against the boy and have him sent to the House of Refuge.

RECKLESS DRIVING.

The next case taken up was the Commonwealth vs. James White, David Menan, Pat. Dolan and Pat. Ward, charged with assault and battery and malicious mischief, M. S. Malone, prosecutor. It appears that Mr. Malone and Lewis Cella had been out buggy riding on a Sunday in June last, and when returning on Fifth avenue, near Pride street, the buggy was run into by a buggy coming up behind them, in which two of the defendants were, which, it was alleged, was racing with a barouche in which the other defendants were riding. Fayette Literary Society.

MESSRS. EDITORS GAZETTE: Literary Societies, when properly conducted, have always been considered good institutions. The people of Pintle Hill and vicinity arrived at the conclusion some time ago that a Literary Society on that classic mount would be an excellent institution, and accordingly they laid their heads together and planned and resolved that there should be a Literary Society at No. 8, which is the Pintle Hill school house; and it should'nt be a poor affair, either—it should be the right kind of a Literary Society, and the machine should be run with energy and determination. A society was in operation about a mile distant, at the Shirland school house, last winter, but it didn't thrive; and so the Hillites with the consent of the Shirlanders, decided to try the Pintle Hill school house for one winter. The success that has attended the present society shows that the changing of the place of meeting was a good move. At the last meeting, the exercises were very entertaining. They consisted of declamations, essays, select reading, and a debate and colloquy. The speeches and essays of the little folks were good, and showed that the Pintle Hill teacher had her scholars under good training. Essays were read by Misses Sallie Dickson, Sadie Crawford, Maggie Stonecipher and M. A. Leech; and John J. C. Stonecipher, J. M. Dickson, George McCandless, John McCandless, D. E. Stonecipher, John Davis, Milo Dickson; and Misses Mary Smith and Lizzie Reed declaimed. Their performances were all highly creditable. "The Way They Kept a Secret," one of the best colloquys ever written by that popular authoress, Clara Augusta, was well performed and kept the audience in a continual roar of laughter. The characters were personated by Misses Aggie S. Wilson, S. Emma Dickson, Annie J. Potter, Mary A. Leech, Maggie McCandless and Master Milo J. Dickson,. The last named person performed the part of "Dick" admirably.

A very useful class of performance in the "Fayette" is the class of extemporaneous speaking. This class was represented on this occasion by Dr. T. P. Graham and T. W. Conway. The question, "Is there such a thing as disinterested benevolence?" was ably argued on the affirmative, by Dr. T. P. Graham, and on the negative by Wm. C. McFarland. At times, the debaters waxed very eloquent, and it would have been a difficult matter to decide which was entitled to the decision.

The officers of the "Fayette" for the ensuing term are: President, Dr. T. P. Graham; Vice President, H. E. McBride; Secretary, Miss M. A. Leech; Treasurer, J. M. Dickson. POLONIUS.

The Late Steamboat Disaster—More Bodies Recovered.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, December 10.—The remains of the victims of the recent terrible disaster that are not recognized by friends are being brought here for interment. Among the bodies recognized is that of the late Mr. Fahnestock, of Philadelphia; also, an Italian named Domini, who had a large amount of gold on his person. The body of Mrs. Pearce, of Louisville, was found in good condition. John Molengraft, of Louisville, supposed to have been lost, has turned up all right. The steamer Graham, working at the wrecks, has thirty men with nets and drags to operate for the recovery of the bodies,

Lake Navigation Closed.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

BUFFALO, December 10.—Navigation is practically closed. Only two vessels, the barks Golden Fleece and E. Patch, are on the lake. They were both heard from this morning at St. Clair Flats. It is doubtful if they reach Port Lower. The harbor was coated with ice this morning.

—The United States steamer Pensacola reports that while off the Mexican coast, en route from Acapulco to San Blas, she experienced a heavy shock of an earthquake on the morning of the 24th, leading to the belief that the ship had struck a reef. Several light shocks were felt at San Francisco on the same day.

—The track of the Central Pacific Railroad has been laid to the South Fork of the Humboldt River, four hundred and fifty miles east of Sacramento and within two hundred miles of Salt Lake, and was progressing at the rate of two and one-half to three miles per day.

—The sentence of death by hanging on the 8th of January, imposed on Christian Garlies, of Buffalo, N. Y., for the murder of Marcus Werden, has been commuted by Governor Fenton to imprisonment for life in the State prison.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, December 10, 1868.

The gold market seemed to be firmer early in the day, but opening at 136¼, declining to 135¾, and closing at 135⅞, weak, after having again touched 136¼. The entire manipulations in the gold room are due to the efforts of a stock clique, who are anxious to sustain the price of their fancies in order to sell out on the public at high prices. The demand for cash gold is limited, although exchange rates are higher, which is due to settling time for sixty-day bills which had been borrowed during the low gold rates in anticipation of settling for them at a lower rate, but which the prime banking houses contrived to keep up in conjunction with stock dealers.

Bonds are decidedly weak, and have declined to-day one-fourth per cent. on all the different denominations. Whenever it is reported from New York that there is a demand for bonds for investment by banks and saving institutions prior to a grand settling day, it is almost certain that these reports are only spread for the purpose of selling out by large dealers, to enable them to replenish their stock at a lower rate.

Stocks are dull and neglected. The Erie clique is trying to get hold of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, and is doing their utmost to depress the stock to induce holders to sell out. Pittsburgh holders are trying to get all the proxies they can to vote at their next meeting against the Erie combination. The balance of the stock list ist is quiet,

Money is in good demand, and business rather quiet.

Closing quotations as received by Ph. R. PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

PENN'A CENTRAL STOCK YARDS, WEDNESDAY, December 9, 1868.

CATTLE.

The stock yards are nearly overrun with stock of various kinds. The receipts of Cattle have been larger than usual, and although the market ruled dull, with a large number unsold at 12 o'clock to-day, there is but little change to note in prices. Choice Cattle sold a shade higher than on Friday last. The sales reported on Friday last were 673 head at a range of from $3,12 to $7,50 per cwt. Sales reported to-day foot up 638 head at from $4,12 to $7,87 per cwt., generally range from $5,50 to $6,25. Total sales for the week foot up 1,311 head, against 1,201 head last week, and 1,319 head the previous week. The general quality of the Cattle on sale was of the medium class, and the number remaining in the pens is large. The sales reported are as follows:

Hedges & Taylor to S. Miller 17 head, weighing 20,000, at 6; same to same 18, weighing 21,150, at 6; same to J. Rambo 16, weighing 16,000, at 5,25; same to Sustie 3, weighing 2,625, at 6,75; same to W. Hittie 18, weighing 21,100, at5,50; same to J. Nichey 5, weighing 5,235, at 6; Orr & Williams to L. Delano 20, weighing 20,200, at 6,50; E. Grantham to Mautes 18, weighing 18,550, at 5,50; J. Evans to J. Rambo 21, weighing 21,500, at 6; L. Keefer to Nitsha 15, weighing 14,775, at 5,65; Patterson to S. Moses 9, weighing 8,500 at 4,75; E. Neff to B. McGarvey 20, weighing 18.275, at 4,50; S. C. Munn to S. Moses 13, weighing 14,335, at 5,50; B. McGarvey to E. Illiman 6, weighing 6,275, at 6; W. Hedge to I. N. Imhoff 30, weighing 26,740, at 4,½; S. McFadden to S. Moses 13, weighing 5,125, at 6,50; same to same 2, weighing 2,900, at 5,50; D. Barringer to Blackwell 18, weighing 15,125, at 6,50; P. Ark to Aull & Co. 23, weighing 22,775, t 4,50; C. W. Friend to H. Miller 17, weighing 19,450; Hanks to Olmus & Z. 20 weighing 20,500, at 6,62; same to same cows, weighing 2,450, at 7; G. W. Friend to H. Miller 16, weighing 21,700, at 7,87; Gstline to Eichelberger 20, weighing 20,600, 5,20.

SHEEP.

Good Sheep active at from 3½ to 4¼ per pound, and a choice article as high as 5½c. The principal offerings are of the medium class, and are nominal in price. The lower grades are also in good supply, but are not wanted at any price. The receipts are large, and sales reported since Friday noon last foot up 5,653 head at a range from $75 to $4,25 per cwt., and several head at from $1,37 to $3 per head. On Friday last the sales reported were 4,787 head at a range of from $2,75 to $3,75 per cwt. Total sales for the week 10,440 head, against 9,341 head last week, and 10,717 head the previous week. At noon to-day there was quite a large number in the pens unsold, and the receipts were coming in heavy.

HOGS.

The market is much excited and prices higher, with large receipts. The demand, however, is sufficient to carry off the arrivals nearly as fast as they come, notwithstanding the prices asked and paid. Packers are in the market and buying, as will be seen by the sales annexed, but are paying extreme prices. The sales since Friday last foot up 13,473 head, at prices ranging from $7 to $8,90 per hundred. Hedges & Taylor bought one car of 87 head of heavy fancy hogs at $9 per hundred. We may quote the market active at $7,75 to $8 for good Yorkers, $8,50 to 8,75 for Philadelphia assorted, and $6,25 to 8,50 for good packing. The sales reported on Friday last were 5,023 head, at from $7,25 to 8,25 per hundred. Total sales for the week 18,496 head, against 18,078 head last week, and 20,358 head the previous week. The quality of the hogs offering are fair, and sell almost as fast as received. At noon to-day the receipts were heavy, but there was no abatement in the demand, as the weather is favorable for packers and shippers.

The packing at the principal western cities this season, up to last Saturday, compares with the corresponding date last year, as follows:

	1868.	1867.
Cincinnati	164,898	187,611
Chicago	173,104	368,600
St. Louis	90,606	97,831
Louisville	105,052	73,572
Total	533,660	727,614

The prices of Hogs are higher than the facts will justify, seems probable. It is yet too early in the season to definitely determine the amount of the "crop," but the fact that there was no old corn to fatten the Hogs with must of necessity cause the Hogs to be marketed late, especially in the northwest, where the new crop of corn ripens late, it is not fit for feeding so as to bring the Hogs to market much before January. At any rate, the running of prices up to such extremes as the present, so early in the season, insures a reaction more or less violent.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, December 10, 1868.

The Titusville Herald gives a report of petroleum facts and statistics for the month of November. We extract the following:

	bbls.
Total shipments of crude for November, of barrels of 45 gallons each	306,483
Add to reduce to barrels of 43 gallons each	14,255
Total shipment of barrels of 43 gallons each	320,738
Stock on hand Nov. 1	266,180
Stock on hand Dec 1	253,700
Deduct decrease on Dec. 1	12,480
Total production during November	308,258
Average per day for 30 days.	10,275
Production previously reported	3,105,633
Total production from Jan. to December 1	3,413,891
Average per day for 365 days	10,190

The average production taken at the wells during the 29th and 30th of November was been 9,700 and 9,800 barrels.

The total exports from New York from January 1st to December 1st, and from all other ports to November 28th, reached 91,803,052 gallons, against 60,726,970 during the same time last year.

There was quite a commotion in oil circles to-day, occasioned by quite a number of very unexpected, and to some parties, unpleasant "calls," and the market was considerably excited, though in Refined there was but comparatively little done. It would appear that the New York clique, which bought so freely some weeks since, are commencing to make requisitions for their December oil, not that they want the oil, but, from what we can learn, the object is to bring about a "corner," and force those who are short to pay the difference between what the oil was bought at and whatever it may be worth on the day of delivery. This is no new thing in the oil business. Several attempts of a similar kind have been made, but they have nearly always resulted disastrously to those who were in the "ring" and were instrumental in bringing it about. The "calls" to-day, it was said, aggregated between fifteen and twenty thousand barrels, and it is expected that the amount will be largely increased to-morrow.

CRUDE.

The Crude market was considerably excited, to-day, and there was considerable inquiry for next year, while for December the demand was rather light. The sales were 5,000 bbls seller's option, all next year, at 12½; and, 9000 bbls, in different lots for first six months, sellers option, at same price. December, seller's option, was offered at 12½, without finding a buyer. From this it would seem that refiners generally have about all the oil they want for the balance of this year, or else they have an idea that they can buy it cheaper before the month is out.

REFINED

As we have already intimated, was also considerably excited to-day, particularly for immediate delivery, though so far as we could learn there was not a single sale. Spot oil was quoted at from 31¾ to 32, and it was reported that a sale had been made in Philadelphia, at the outside figure. Sale of 500 bbls each March and April at 31½. Some of the "shorts" have already covered, while others express a determination to see it out—either pay more or less.

The Pittsburgh Gazette.

Union Pacific Railroad.

The report of the Union Pacific Railroad officers to the late report of the special examiners is long document. It takes up the twenty-five charges of the examiners and reviews them seriatim. The report claims that a fuller expenditure of six millions and a half of dollars is needed. The reply shows that half a million of this has been already expended, and but $95,000 more are required. The officers further say that they have 400 freight cars and twenty locomotives east of the Missouri river, and ready to be crossed; that they have 400,000 ties in ansit; that they have several gravel trains ontinually engaged in ballasting the track. The reply closes as follows:

"The company have at this date completed sixty miles of track, in addition to the eight hundred and ninety miles reported upon by the commission. The grading is nearly completed for a distance of one hundred and twenty miles in advance of the track upon a large portion of which the crosties are delivered and distributed. Grading has also been commenced, and large forces are now engaged in preparing the road-bed, and procuring ties west of the one hundred and twentieth mile post above referred to. One hundred and twenty miles of iron are now delivered west of the Missouri river, and ninety more are en route west of that point. The above items, together with the ties and timber delivered for construction purposes, make up an amount of at least eight million dollars, which the company have expended in advance of the road already completed. In addition to the above, the company have contracted to construct an iron bridge over the Missouri river, at a cost of $1,500,000; all of which would show that the company are acting in good faith toward the Government, and are constructing a good and substantial road as fast as the same can be done. It would also seem that the Government is amply secure in the issue and delivery of the Government bonds as fast as completed. Sections of the work are examined and accepted by the Commissioner appointed by the President, under the charter of the company. The company have never received a patent from the Government for an acre of the land which was granted as a subsidy for building the road, and it has been thought the retention of the land by the government would be ample security for the performance of all that was required of the company by the terms of the charter."

The True Indian Policy.

There is no doubt that the Indian commits crimes which make the nation shudder. Neither is there any doubt that he is systematically robbed and wronged by the pale-faces. These two forces keep the pendulum of destruction in perpetual motion. The tribes are being exterminated. Our Indian policy is confessedly a disgrace to our statesmanship; but it is much easier to say that than to suggest a fitting substitute. The suggestion made in these columns last summer—the extermination of the buffalo—is, we are still inclined to think, the first practical step towards a solution of the difficulty. If there were no buffalo the Indians would be compelled to settle down on the reservations provided by the Government, and exchange the life of the hunter for pastoral and agricultural pursuits. There is however, no doubt that the Indian is susceptible of civilization. But it is impossible to civilize him while he remains a heathen. These are two important postulates, and they narrow the sphere of the question very materially. The desiderate to give all the tribes local habitation on inalienable reservations, and to teach them to look to the fruits of the earth, instead of the spoils of chase, for food. Any war against them, or any policy in their interest that has not that end in view, is good for very little. In dealing with the Indians such a policy is needed, for everything that has yet been tried is a failure. It should be humane as well as thorough. The periodical butcheries which mark our dealings with the Indians, may possibly be necessary under the circumstances that provoke them, but they are none less a disgrace to the American name, for our statesmanship should long ago have provided against the recurrence of such circumstances.

Business Men as Legislators.

There is no more encouraging symptom in the condition of the country than the growing willingness of leading business men to grapple with the grave commercial questions that are now awaiting settlement. It gives ground for hope of such a reform as many have lately despaired of in the adjustment of certain questions that vitally concern our material interests. It forebodes less talk and more action, more common sense and less superficial theorizing. What the business men of the country have lately said and done in their commercial conventions and Boards of Trade will take shape in legislative enactments by Congress and the States.

These men are the real legislators; they can give tone and tendency to legislation, because they know the popular wants and they express the popular sentiment. They are fresh from the marts of commerce and contact with all the industries of the country; and while the mere theoretical statesman is delving in the histories of Greece and Rome for stale precedents and obsolete principles, they catch with intuitive sagacity the true bearings of a commercial problem and solve it at a dash. We want this element in Congress. What it can do has been demonstrated in the several recent commercial conventions, whose proceedings have surprised the public by their wisdom and directness.

Jews in the New Parliament.

An English paper says: "Since their emancipation the Jews have at each general election increased their candidature for parliamentiary honors. At the present crisis no fewer than nine gentlemen of the above persuasion have been nominated, namely: Baron Rothschild, for the city of London; Baron Meyer Rothschilds, for Hythe; Mr. Nathaniel Rothschilds, for Aylesbury; Mr. Alderman Solomons, for Greenwich; Sir Francis Goldsmid, for Reading; Mr. G. Jessel, Q. C., for Dover; Mr. Serjeant Simon, for Dewsbury; Dr. Julian Goldsmid, for Mid Surrey; and Mr. H. Worms, for Sandwich. Seven out of nine (all Liberals) have been returned, and two defeated—Baron Rothschilds, for the city of London, and Mr. Worms, who stood on the Conservative side.

"A MILLIARDAIRE."—Baron James de Rothschild, who died in Paris, November 15, was the wealthiest and most influential banker in the world. He left a fortune estimated by the French papers at two milliards, that is 2,000,000,000 francs, or $400,000,000. Most of this is, of course, in stocks, money and portable securities; but he had also splendid town and country houses, the latter close to the Bois de Boulogne; and fifty-one other houses in Paris; palaces at Rome, Naples, Florence and Turin, and more or less property in nearly every great city in Europe.

In Gotha it is said that Queen Victoria is by no means averse to a marriage with Duke Ernest, Prince Albert's step-brother, a most accomplished and still very fine looking gentleman.

Who Will Have Influence With Grant?

There is a great deal of speculation on this subject just now. Some people think that Mr. E. B. Washburne will control him; some say that he is in frequent and confidential correspondence with A. T. Stewart, the dry goods man; some say that General Rawlins is all powerful with him, and others that General Badeau wields a wonderful influence. We have been frequently asked what we think about the matter, and to save the trouble of further inquiry we may as well state our views. On one occasion when General Grant was riding with us behind Peerless, he quietly remarked: "I should like to take hold of the reins." Now, we rather think General Grant will hold the reins himself the next four years. He has been elected President, and he will be President. It is true that he has said that he should only carry out the will of the people as declared by the laws of Congress, but then he will carry it out. We shall have an administration. He will do his duty, and the men under him will have to do their duty. Therefore we conclude that the most influential man with the administration for the next four years will be Ulysses S. Grant. —New York Ledger.

"THE FINE ARTS do not interest me," said Theodore Parker, so much as the coarse arts, which feed, clothe, house and comfort a people. I should rather be a great man as Franklin than a Michael Angelo—nay, if I had a son, I should rather see him a mechanic who organized use like the late Geo. Stephenson, in England, than a great painter, like Reubens, who only copied beauty. In short, I take more interest in a cattle show, and feel more sympathy with the Pope's bull than his bul-lum. Men talk to me about the absence of art in America. You remember the stuff that M—— used to twaddle forth upon that theme, and what transcendential nonsense got delivered from gawky girls and long-haired young men. I told them we have cattle shows and mechanics' fairs, and ploughs, and barrows, and saw mills, and sewing machines, and reaping machines, and threshing machines, and planing machines. There is not a saw mill in Rome. I doubt if there is one in the Pontifical States.

THE DUNDERBERG.—We have had lately an opportunity of conversing with a French gentleman who occupies a high place in the service of his Government, who informs us that the iron-clad man-of-war Dunderberg, or, as she is now called, the Rochambeau, has proved altogether satisfactory, and, in fact, is regarded as the best ship in the French navy. Her speed is great, she is easy to manage and she she can be navigated in any sea. The reports that it had been found necessary to reconstruct her, which have been so industriously circulated in this country, are entirely untrue. Two or three pieces of timber which had not been sufficiently seasoned have been taken out and replaced by others, but the vessel is substantially the same as when she left New York. It is the prevailing opinion, too, that she must be extensively imitated in the construction of other iron-clads hereafter.—N. Y. Sun.

THE SHREWDEST instance of "diamond cut diamond" has just transpired in Chicago. A gentleman and lady had begun the examination of some diamonds. Soon a man with a star on his breast entered, and quietly informed the clerk that he suspected them, telling him to show them everything they desired, and if they undertook to secrete anything he would arrest them. The display of goods contiued for some time, several valuable pieces being quietly transferred to the pockets of the customers. Pretty soon another starred individual entered and arrested the pair. Nothing has since been heard of them nor the diamonds. The four were confederates.

THURLOW WEED, according to information from New York, is in a deplorable physical condition; his physicians do not allow him to read newspapers or to converse on political subjects. His disease is softening of the brain.

This Company, National in its character, offers, by reason of the Large Capital, Low Rates of Premium and New Tables, the most desirable means of insuring life to the public.

The rates of premium being largely reduced, are made as favorable to the insurers as those of the best Mutual Companies, and avoid all the complications and uncertainties of Notes, Dividends and the misunderstandings which the latter are so apt to cause the Policy-Holders.

Several new and attractive tables are now presented which need only to be understood to prove acceptable to the public, such as INCOME-PRODUCING POLICY and RETURN PREMIUM POLICY. In the former, the policy-holder not only secures a life insurance, payable at death, but will receive, if living, after a period of a few years, an annual income equal in ten per cent. (10 per cent.) of the par of his policy. The latter the Company agrees to return to the assured the total amount of money he has paid in, in addition to the amount of his policy.

The attention of persons contemplating insuring their lives or increasing the amount of insurance they already have, is called to the special advantages offered by the National Life Insurance Company.

The improvements are a fine two-story brick house, with ten large rooms and hall. A large frame bank barn, with No. 1 stabling, and all other outbuildings in complete order. One of the best of orchards, of all kinds of fruit. The soil is rich new bottom. This property adjoins the village of Buena Vista, and has the advantage of churches, schools, mills, stores, &c., and will be sold at the low price of $15,000. The improvements alone are worth at least all that is asked for the property, to say nothing about the land, which is worth for garden purposes at least $10,000. For full particulars call at my office, or WILLIAM A. BELL, Esq., on the premises.

ALSO, A FARM OF 40 ACRES, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., on the line of the Connellsville Railroad, about 18 miles from the city. Also, a large frame bank barn, smoke house, wash house, coal house, bake-oven and other outbuildings, and a never-failing well of water. Two large orchards, containing from six to seven hundred fruit trees, nearly all in good bearing condition. This farm abounds in small fruits, viz: Currants, raspberries, gooseberries, and a fine large strawberry patch, which, in connexion with the richness of the soil and nearness to the city, makes it very desirable for gardening purposes. Very convenient to schools, churches, stores and blacksmith shop.

ALSO, A FARM OF 158 ACRES, situated in Elizabeth township, Allegheny county, Pa., 31 miles from the city of Pittsburgh, on the Connellsville Railroad, at Suter Station. The improvements are a common log house, a good frame barn, with stabling for ten horses; a corn crib and wagon shed; good orchard of fruit trees; fencing very good. 120 acres cleared, the residue in heavy timber land. This tract is well adapted for a garden or dairy farm, being convenient and of easy access to either city, and near enough to the line of the Mahoning Railroad to make it very desirable for country seats, for persons doing business in the city.

ALSO, The best farm in Young township, Indiana county, Pa., 4 miles from Western Penna. R. R. at Livermore Station, containing 300 ACRES—225 acres cleared and under No. 1 fencing, as well as fine farming condition; the balance in good white oak timber. The improvements are 2 two-story frame houses, nearly new, of eight rooms each and finished basements and attics; a large bank barn 50 by 80 feet, a two-story spring house and other necessary outbuildings, all in good order; 5 acres of orchard of choice varieties of fruits; 4 feet vein of coal (now open,) underlying the whole tract, and limestone in abundance, with plenty of springs of never-failing water. Taken all to them—houses, fencing, soil, nice lying surface, public highway, churches, schools, mills, &c.,—I know of no more inviting and desirable tract of land in Western Pennsylvania.

ALSO, FARM AND MILLS. A small tract of 60 ACRES of very valuable land in Derry township Westmoreland county, Pa.; well fenced and in a high state of cultivation, with new frame dwelling, and other outbuildings; a new grist and saw mill complete, with two run of burrs, two bolting cloths, and all the needed fixtures, in good order, and a young orchard of choice fruits; lane is all underlaid with a six foot vein of coal, now opened and worked, at the back of the mill, and limestone in abundance. CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Five drunks and two disorderlies honored Mayor Drum's levee with their presence yesterday morning.

The holidays are fast approaching now, and ladies wishing to know where to buy cheap goods, had better call at Macrum, Glyde & Co., 78 and 80 Market street.

Surety of the Peace.—Patrick McKenna made information, before the Mayor, yesterday, against Thos. McKenna for surety of the peace. A warrant was issued.

The Republicans of the Third ward, Allegheny, will hold a primary meeting Saturday evening, the 12th inst., at Col. Geo. Gerst's, to place in nomination ward officers.

Committed.—Justice Mitchell yesterday committed Thomas Maloney to the county jail, on a charge of riot and assault and battery, preferred against him by Thomas Petterson.

Coroner's Inquest.—Coroner Clawson held an inquest yesterday on the body of Thos. Crawford, a notice of whose death we published yesterday. The jury returned a verdict of death from natural causes.

New Holiday Goods at Macrum, Glyde & Co., 78 and 80 Market street. Watch Stands, Cigar Stands and Cases, Writing Desks, Necessaires, fancy Glove Boxes, full assortment of Lace Goods, etc.

Assault and Battery.—Henry Miller made information before the Mayor, yesterday, charging a man named Hartman with assault and battery, alleging that the accused struck him in the face with his fist. A warrant was issued.

Fined.—William White, a colored man, created a row in a lager beer saloon, in the Third ward, Allegheny, yesterday afternoon, for which he was arrested, and fined ten dollars by Mayor Drum. He paid the fine and was released.

Accident to a Horse.—Last evening about five o'clock a valuable horse belonging to Mr. Hackenstein, brickmaker, fell down at the corner of Federal and Jackson streets, Allegheny, and was severely injured. The animal will in all probability die.

Libel.—A. M. Bowser, of Irwin Station, some weeks since brought suit against W. W. Keenan, of the Greensburg Democrat, in one of our county courts, for libel in an article recently published on him in that sheet. The trial comes off next week.

Executive Committee Meeting.—The Republican Executive Committee of Allegheny City will hold a meeting at the City Treasurer's office, Monday evening, December 14th, to transact some preliminary business, relative to the ensuing primary elections.

Lectures and Concerts.—A project is on foot to get up a series of entertainments to be given at the Valley church, Findley township, or at the Methodist church in Fayette. The entertainments will consist of lectures and music, and the proceeds will be expended in the purchase of a library.

Back Again.—James Welsh, a veteran disorderly who had just been released from jail, was rearrested yesterday afternoon and remanded back to that institution by Mayor Drum, in default of a fine of $20.00, for kicking up a row with his family and attempting to demolish their household furniture.

Held for Trial.—John Boyle and Patrick Harkins, charged with having committed a felonious assault and battery on the person of John McDonald, on Friday night, had a hearing yesterday, which resulted in their being held to bail for their appearance at Court, in default of which they were committed to jail.

Boy Injured.—Yesterday afternoon a little boy named Wm. Cransal, while taking a sled ride down Linden street, in the Third ward, Allegheny, collided with a tree box on the sidewalk. His leg was very badly bruised and he sustained other severe injuries. He was taken to his home, in the vicinity, where his injuries were attended to by a physician.

Grand Ball.—The Mechanics Hose Company, No. 1, of Birmingham, an organization justly celebrated for the clever and enterprising spirit of the members, are arranging to hold their third annual uniform and citizens dress ball, to be held at the Town Hall, Birmingham, on Christmas eve. A very pleasant and enjoyable time may be anticipated.

Larceny as Bailee.—Mary Kauffman made information yesterday before Alderman McMasters, against Mrs. Rodgers, for larceny as bailee. The prosecutor alleges that the defendant borrowed from her several articles of household furniture, valued at $7,00, which she now refuses to return. The accused resides in a court in the rear of the African church on Wylie street. Warrant issued.

Sudden Death.—A man named James Brown, fell dead in the bar room of the Western Hotel, on Penn street, near the canal, last evening about eight o'clock. The man was about twenty-seven years of age, and had arrived during the afternoon from Cincinnati. From papers found in his possession it appeared that he was a resident of Lawrence, Massachusetts. The Coroner will hold an inquest to-day.

Hindoo Exhibition.—The Hindoo exhibition of idols, curiosities, manners, costumes, courtship, etc., by Rev. Andrew Gordon, ten years missionary in India, and his daughter, will be held to-night at the church of Rev. J. R. Kerr, on Ridge street, Allegheny city. Mr. Gordon and his gifted daughter will appear in full Hindoo dress, converse and sing in the Hindostanee language, and exhibit interesting and instructive scenes of Hindoo life, forming an exceedingly rare entertainment.

Serious Accident.—As Col. James A. Grey, of Allegheny city, accompanied by his wife and two daughters, were riding in their baroncbe down Federal street last night about nine o'clock, the shaft broke and the horse took fright and dashed at a fearful rate of speed down the street. At the corner of Robinson street the vehicle was overturned and the occupants thrown violently out upon the street. The ladies escaped injury. Col. Grey was severely wounded about the head and face, and the driver had his right leg broken below the knee. Dr. Rankin attended the parties.

Fire.—A careless workman engaged in repairing building No. 141 Wood stree, adjoining the well known fur emporium of William Fleming, built a fire in a room on the third floor on the hearthstone, there being no grate, and left the premises without putting it out. The embers burned through a joice and falling to the second floor set fire to some shavings and scraps of lumber. The fire was discovered about half-past eight o'clock and by the aid of a few steam engines was speedily quenched. Had it remained undiscovered much longer the building, together with Fleming's great fur house, must soon have been destroyed.

Taken Sick on a Train.—A Baltimore paper says: A lady named Mrs. Mary E. Rodgers, lately from Pittsburgh, while traveling in a train of the Philadelphia Railroad, was taken sick last evening between Havre de Grace and this city. On the arrival of the train shortly after eight o'clock at the President Street Depot, her brother, Thomas Richards, who was to have met her, not appearing, it was thought advisable that she should be removed to the Eastern Station, where Captain Kennedy provided comfortably for her. The services of Dr. Erich were availed of, and by which she was somewhat improved. She had recently lost her husband in Pittsburgh.

Council came to order at seven o'clock, President Slagle occupying the Chair.

At the calling of the roll by the clerk, Robert Dilworth, Esq., the following members answered to their names:

Messrs. Blair, Comley, Clark, Eyster Groetzinger, Hanna, Hastings, Hochuly, Kennedy, Lindsay, Ley, Megraw, McDonald, McNeill, Ober, Reynolds, Reed, Richardson, Reineman, Saints, Seidle, Slack, Tate, Voegtly, White, Warner and President Slagle.

On motion of Mr. Tate, the reading of the minutes of the preceding meeting was dispensed with.

Mr. Blair presented a petition from the residents on South Canal street, protesting against the assessments for the grading and paving of said street. Referred to Committee on streets.

Mr. Warner presented a resolution instructing the Street Commissioner, to notify the contractors for the paving of Franklin street to place the sidewalks on said street in passable condition, or have the contract cancelled.

Mr. Tate moved to amend by striking out the part relative to the penalty attached to their non-compliance with the order. The amendment was lost and the resolution adopted.

Mr. Eyster, a resolution authorizing Mr. W. Maxwell to act as Bark measurer in the city until the next regular election. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Seidle a resolution instructing the Street Committee to have the houses in the Eighth Ward numbered and have the names of the streets fixed on the houses in the usual manner.

Mr. Comley moved to amend by authorizing the Committee to collect the cost of the same from the occupants of the houses. The resolution as amended was adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON GAS.

Mr. Hastings from the Committee on gas presented their report, stating that they had found it unnecessary to inquire into the reason of the short supply of gas throughout the city as the Gas Company, is making extensive additions to its works.

The following petitions for gas posts, at the following points, were received: on Sheffield street corner of Manhattan, corner of Chartiers and midway between these points, corner of Bell alley and Lacock street. Resolutions instructing the erection of the gas posts at the points named were offered in the report. The report was accepted and the resolutions adopted.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON FIRE ENGINES.

Mr. Megraw, Chairman of the Committee on Fire Engines presented their report, stating that, according to instructions of Councils, they had appointed a Superintendent of the Fire Alarm at a salary of $800. The gentleman appointed is the former attendant, Mr. L. D. McCandless. The report was accepted and the appointment of the Committee confirmed.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON POOR FARM.

Mr. McNeil, from the Committee on Poor Farm, presented their report as follows:

Gentlemen: The Committee on Poor Farm would respectfully report in regard to the several farms proposed to the city for a Poor Firm, and which were referred by Councils to them. In a former report, we recommended the purchase of the place known as the Brackinridge farm, for the reason that there was no other proposition before us. Since then the Directors and Councils visited and viewed the above mentioned farm with that of Coffin and McKeon's, and, also, the property of Messrs. Boyd, all on the Western Pennsylvania Railroad. The property of Judge and Mrs. Brackenridge we think very unsuitable, on account of its great distance from the city, with no corresponding advantage whatever. The farm of Messrs Coffin & McKeon being very hilly and uneven and in no way adapted for a city poor farm, we would not recommend its purchase. The farm which William Boyd proposes to sell the city contains about one hundred and thirty acres, (at the rate of $500 per acre,) fronts on the Western Pennsylvania Railroad, and is very favorably situated. Councils having seen and examined the farm, it is needless for us to say anything concerning the advantages; we therefore respectfully recommend the adoption of the following resolutions:

Resolved, By the Select and Common Councils that the Directors of the Poor be and they are hereby authorized and requested to purchase the farm of Messrs. David and William Boyd, situated in Indiana township.

Mr. Hochuly presented a communication from Jacob Huddle & Bro., containing a proposition offering them their farm in Indiana township at two hundred and seventy-five dollars per acre, and citing the advantages possessed by the same. The paper was referred to the Committee on Poor Farm.

Objection was made to the reception of the report, because it was signed by but four members of the Committee. Considerable discussion ensued on the question of accepting the report.

The President finally, to bring the matter before the Councils, signed the report, he being by virtue of his office, a member of the Committee.

Objection was still made by Mr. Comley, who claimed that the President of the Select Council was a member of the committee by the same right, which would make the committee consist of ten members, and as there were but five signers to the report, it was not yet legal.

Mr. Tate stated that having the same feeling in regard to the matter as the President, he would also sign the report, which made the report legally presented to Councils for their action.

On motion of Mr. Megraw the report was accepted.

The question of adopting the accompanying resolution was then taken up.

Mr. Megraw moved the adoption of the resolution authorizing the purchase of the Boyd Farm,

Mr. Tate moved to amend the resolution by striking out the words "William and David Boyd," and inserting the words, "The Brackenridge Farm."

The Chair decided the motion out of order, as it destroyed the original resolution.

Mr. Hanna asked the reasons of the Committee for selecting the Boyd Farm.

Mr. McNeil stated that the committee had decided to recommend the Boyd farm, because of its nearness to the city. It laid well, had a front on the river and railroad, was fertile and easily worked; and seemed in all respects to be admirably adapted for the purpose.

Mr. Tate objected to the purchase of the Boyd farm. The river front which was spoken of as an advantage, would require protection from the freshets of the river, and would therefore be an expense. Then the farm was cut up by the railroad and township road; all of which ground was counted in the estimate of acres in the farm. The Brackenridge farm was located at a longer distance from the city, but is possessed of other advantages, such as a well laid out farm, fertile land, good springs, was not cut up into parcels, but in one large piece.

Mr. Megraw said the city would only have to pay for what land they bought. He considered a farm located but eight miles from the city worth considerable more than a farm twenty-two miles distant.

The question was discussed at great length by Messrs. Tate, Megraw, Warner, Reynolds, Hanna, Slack and others, which was finally cut short by Mr. Slack, who moved to refer the matter back to the Committee, with instructions that if a majority of the Committee could not agree, in reference to a resolution authorizing the purchase of a farm, that the minority of the Committee bring in a report to the Councils setting forth their views in regard to the matter.

The motion was lost.

Mr. Megraw called for the yeas and nays on the original motion for the adoption of the resolution, with the following result:

Yeas—Messrs. Blair, Eyster, Groetzinger, Hastings, Lindsay, Ley, Megraw, McNeill, Ober, Reynolds, Reineman, Saints, Seidle, Voegtly—14.

Nays—Messrs. Comley, Clark, Hanna, Hochuly, Kennedy, McDonald, Richardson, Slack, Tate, White, Warner and President Slagle—12.

So the resolution was adopted.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON MARKETS.

Mr. Hanna, Chairman of the Committee on Markets, presented their report:

Mr. M'Donald presented a petition from property owners in the vicinity asking for the erection of a fire plug at the corner of Sedgwick street and Ohio avenue. Referred to the Committee on Water.

Mr. Hastings presented an ordinance changing the grade of Fairmont street, and moved its adoption.

Mr. Slack moved to amend by referring the matter to the Street Committee.

Mr. Comley offered a resolution instructing the Committee on Markets to keep the pavements around the markets clear of slush and ice. Adopted.

In all other business not noted, C. C. concurred, after which, on motion, adjourned.

Bodies Recovered.

The bodies of Mr. Fahnestock and daughter, who were lost on board the ill-fated steamboat United States, have been recovered and will be forwarded to Philadelphia for interment. The body of Miss F. was so shockingly burned as to render it utterly impossible for her friends to recognize it as the one they were in search of. Several other parties claimed the corpse as that of some missing friend. Fortunately a ring was found on the finger of the mutilated and burned body with the name "Grace" engraved inside. A telegram to this city asking if Miss F. had such a ring was promptly answered in the affirmative, as she was known to have possessed one of the description, and thus was the body recognized and given to friends.

FURS.

Price Current of the Popular Wholesale and Retail House of William Fleming, No 139 Wood Street.

Mr. William Fleming, who in a large measure leads the fur trade of these parts, has just issued from his popular emporium a bulletin of prices which must prove a matter of convenience and information to our readers. The house has on hand a large, magnificent and judiciously assorted stock of furs, which for variety, beauty and excellence can no where else be surpossed, if approached. All the styles are conspicuously shown in the commodious salesrooms of the magnificent building occupied by Mr. Fleming, and the visitor will also find all the various grades, colors and qualities known to furriers. Sets neat, rich and comfortable range in price, as will be observed by the annexed quotations, at from five up to two hundred dollars. There are a few points in the business system of this great establishment that commend it in strong terms to the confidence of the reader, and accounts for the great share of patronage that is directed towards it at all seasons of the year. These may be briefly stated:

1. Large and numerous sales with small profits are preferable to few and small sales at exhorbitant profits.

2. All goods are warranted. No clerk is permitted under any consideration to make false representations in order to sell goods. This rule inspires all purchasers with confidence and enables the house to sustain a high and enviable reputation for honorable dealing.

3. The advantages procured by the proprietor through his large purchases are shared with his patrons, affording them opportunity to save from 15 to 25 per cent. on all the money they leave with his house.

4. The stock is never permitted to run down, but is always kept up to the outside requirements of the wholesale and retail trade.

Other houses might with considerable advantage follow these rules, and in due course of time would in all probability do perhaps as large and successful business as is now transacted at Fleming's. Here is the price current just issued:

Coroner's Inquest—A Sad Case.

We made brief mention yesterday of the case of Samuel Gracy, who was in the lock-up, supposed to be in a dying condition, and hazarded the opinion that he would not recover, although a skilful physician and kind nurses attended him. Our fears were realized, the unfortunate man dying about three o'clock Thursday morning. Coroner Clawson was apprized of the fact and yesterday afternoon held an inquest, at which the following facts were elicietd:

The deceased was a resident of Wilkinsburg, aged about forty-five years, a widower and by occupation a laborer. According to his own statement, corroborated by others, he had been drinking to excess, and was laboring under the effects of delirium tremens. On Monday evening he called at the office of Dr. D. Cowley, in East Liberty, and procured some medicine. The Doctor, who was called before the jury, testified that the deceased told him he had been on a spree "for ten weeks," and he was convinced that he was then on the verge of delirium tremens. The Doctor prescribed and the patient left. He is next seen by policeman Timothy Kelley, on Tuesday night and Wednesday morning. He told the policeman he was cold and was conveyed to Shoenberger's blast furnace and was left standing in front of the boilers. After a time he took off his coat and climbed up and laid down on the bricks between the boilers. Believing that the man required proper care and attention, word was sent by the mill hands to the Mayor's office, and after some delay he was conveyed thither. Here he remained from about two o'clock in the afternoon until ten at night before medical attendance was procured. At that time Dr. Julian Rogers was called and did all in his power to save the life of the poor man, but his efforts, and those who kindly assisted him, proved fruitless. The Doctor testified that he died from exhaustion and exposure.

The remains of the deceased were taken in charge by his brother-in-law, Hugh Ward, and conveyed to his residence, No. 40 Palo Alto street, Allegheny city.

We give the facts without comment, yet their simple recital affords abundant food for thought. The Coroner's jury returned a verdict that the deceased came to his death from destitution and exposure.

Important to Pensioners.

By the limitation of the Act of Congress, July 14, 1862, known as the "Pension Act," application for invalid pension if not made within one year from discharge, commenced from the date of filing the application, and the intermediate period from discharge to making application was lost, and by the limitations of the Act of July 4, 1864, applications by widows, minor children or other heirs entitled to the benefits of the pension laws, were required to be made in less than three years from the death of the soldier or sailor on whose behalf the pension was claimed. If not made within that period, the commencement of the pension should date from filing of the last paper in the case. The Act of July 27, 1868, extends the time in both classes of pensions to five years from date of discharge or death. Those who have not drawn a pension from the date of their discharge from the service, or from the death of their relative, can collect the arrears for the intermediate period.

Soldiers of the war of 1812 and the Mexican war, or their heirs, are entitled to the same pension as those of the recent rebellion. For further information we refer to Mr. Hall Patterson, attorney at law, 71 Grant street.

The Bevins-Hemmings Imbroglio.

James G. Bevins, of New York, arrived in the city yesterday morning, and made information before the Mayor, alleging that George Hemmings was a fugitive from justice from the State of New York, and that a requisition had been obtained from Governor Fenton upon Governor Geary for his return. He further alleges that Hemmings is charged with grand larceny, on oath of James Lynch. Hemmings was arrested, and before he had obtained bail, John H. Kerr, Esq., obtained a writ of habeas corpus, which was made returnable this morning at ten o'clock. Hemmings was then placed in the lock-up.

An alias capias in the case for damages against Mr. and Mrs. Bevins was issued and placed in the hands of the Sheriff, and will probably be served this morning. No further developments.

CHRISTMAS PRESENTS.

Where and What to Purchase.

The near approach of Christmas with its attendant joys and pleasures fills old and young with anticipation. There is no more gladsome, heartwarming and welcome holiday in the whole calendar than the anniversary of the birth of Christ in the stable of Bethlehem. It smoothes the wrinkles on our brows, takes out the gray hairs from our locks, loosens our hearts and makes children of us all. In its presence we forget business cares, throw aside anxiety and give ourselves up to pleasure and enjoyment. With Christmas comes the happy season for present making, and few there are who do not expect some offering of love, gratitude and friendship from friends and relatives. The custom is a time honored and hallowed one and we think there is no reader so lost to generous impulse, and so selfish, as to refuse to acknowledge it as the very poetry of gratitude. Presuming that all are anxious to become donors during the holidays, a few words about what will serve best for present making will be appropriate here. For mothers, daughters, wives, nieces and sweet hearts, the gentlemen can purchase nothing that will please better than a tea set, a pair of china vases, a statuette, or any of the numberless articles of use and beauty embraced in the splendid stock of R. E. Breed & Co., No. 100 Wood street. This firm has made special arrangements for supplying their wholesale and retail patrons with goods suitable for the holidays, and in that view have received fresh from the importers one of the largest and finest assortment of china, glass, silver plated, parian and queensware ever opened in this city. It embraces everything that is rich, new and novel, and it would be utterly useless and vain to attempt to give the reader any proper idea of the general extent and beauty of the thousand and one different articles which crowd their commodious building from cellar to garret. Those desiring to purchase anything in the line should themselves visit the house, and, our word for it, they will see so much to admire that they will wish they were worth a million of dollars so that they could purchase all that charms their eyes and satisfies their tastes. The assortment on the first floor is exceedingly large and fine, embracing fine Bohemian glass vases, toilet sets, mantle sets, cologne bottles, exquisitely fine cut glassware, Parisan busts and statuettes, rich china dinner and tea sets, handsome and elaborate china vases, elegant mounted vases, beautiful articles of lava ware, such as vases, figures, smoking sets, &c., white and gold band granite ware, parlor flower pots of charming patterns and designs, and a splendid assortment of china preference cups. The firm make a specialty of silver-plated wares, and have an elegant supply on hand. The stock of staple goods is immense, and affords admirable choice and selection, but as we before remarked, the reader must visit the establishment himself to gain a proper idea of the general beauty, completeness and variety of the stock offered to holiday purchasers. This house is the pioneer of the business in Pittsburgh and has ever sustained high and enviable reputation. Its present proprietors are fair dealing, courteous and obliging gentlemen and we bespeak for them that large share of patronage their business enterprise in laying in so large a stock for the season so eminently merits and deserves.

Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—The attendance at the Opera House was quite large last night. "Narcisse, the Vagrant," was reproduced with Mr. Adams in the title role. To-night Mr. Adams takes a complimentary benefit, at which will be presented the "Sculptor's Dream, or the Marble Heart," in which Mr. Adams sustains two characters. On Monday evening Miss Maggie Mitchell will commence an engagement at this establishment.

MUSEUM.—The attractions at Burnell's Museum are quite numerous and hundreds of persons, young and old, visit it daily.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—This evening Ole Bull, the celebrated Violinist, assisted by a troupe of celebrities, will give one of their excellent concerts at the Academy of Music. As such opportunities for hearing excellent music are few and seldom offered, the Academy will doubtless be crowded to the extent of its capacity.

PAREPA ROSA, the acknowledged Queen of Song, will give one of her grand concerts at the Academy of Music, Wednesday evening, December 16th. She will be assisted by a corps of vocalists, whose reputation is second only to Parepa. M'me. Parepa is on her way East from California, from whence she came by the overland route, after one of the most brilliant and successful opera seasons. Her name is sufficient to fill any hall in the country.

PITTSBURGH THEATRE.—Miss Kate Fisher continues to be the attraction at the Old Theatre. The attendance was very good last night and the entertainment a most excellent one. "Scamps of London; or After Dark" was the piece played, and it was so highly appreciated that the Manager concluded to repeat it to-night.

TRIMBLES VARIETIES.—The attraction at the Varieties are as brilliant as ever. "The Female Forty Thieves" is the after-piece to-night, and we learn will be preceded by a local drama of great interest.

Great Inducements.

Mr. Trauerman, the extensive and popular clothing merchant, proprietor of the original big No. 11, on Sixth, late St Clair street, advertises in another column a rare inducement to purchasers. He has a splendid stock of new goods in the way of seasonable coats, pants and vests on hand, which he offers at a perfect sacrifice. Every article of clothing is marked with large cards at the lowest cash prices, and purchasers may rely on being fairly dealt with. Any person wanting well made and stylish clothing, at very cheap prices, should cut out the card found in another column, which is as good as two dollars to the purchaser of twenty-five dollars' worth of clothing, and at once visit this large and well conducted establishment. Mr. Trauerman believes in treating everybody fairly and squarely and the utmost confidence can be reposed in his word at all times, and as he advertises such rare inducements the reader can put faith in them and benefit himself thereby.
